Rhoda's Corner By Rhoda Schreider

We have several great happenings at the club for your enjoyment!

First, three world class players, Allan Cokin, Michael Seamon and Shannon Cappelletti will give classes at our club for 4 weeks, starting on Wed., March 8 at 9am. There will be advanced lectures in one room and intermediate lectures in the other room. Four lessons for $75 or $30 for a single session. Not to be missed! If your name is drawn on the day, your lectures are free!

St. Patty's Day is always fun. Live music, hors d'oeuvres-corned beef and cabbage with all the trimmings. Pictures of you and your partner, door prizes and good fun. $20, includes bridge game. Fri., Mar. 17 at 6pm.

April 2 at noon is when I'll be celebrating my birthday. Please be my guest for brunch. However, as you know, there is no such thing as a free lunch. Please bring at least 2 pounds of food, which we will pass on to the homeless shelter. This is the 18th year we have been doing this. "Feel good about helping others." I know I feel good and hope you do too.

Have a wonderful month. Be healthy, stay happy and play more bridge here!

PARTNERSHIP DESK: Lenny Goldstein has volunteered to manage our partnership desk. Please call the club 30-60 minutes before game time to request a partner. If you are willing to serve as a standby player, please call Lenny at the club or his home phone 954-530-2004. You should be able to get to the club in 15-30 minutes of the call and you will play for free. Please let Lenny know when you are available!
