Rhoda's Corner By Rhoda Schreider

Let us all hope that the new year will bring us peace, health and happiness. Our snow birds are back in great numbers and consequently the night games have improved in attendance.

There are two, yes two, great teachers that will have classes. Starting January 14, Monday from 9:45-11:45am Sedat Nassi, a diamond life master with over 5,000 master points will give a series of lessons. Then on Wednesday January 16, Martin Hoffman of international fame will be teaching from 9:30-11:30am. These are opportunities not to be missed. (Please visit our web site for further details.)

Since I will be leaving as club manager the end of March, many of my friends are giving me a cocktail party to celebrate my eightieth birthday as well as retirement. Since it's a secret-please remember no presents, just your presence will be lovely. The date is March 11 at four o'clock. That will allow the daytime players as well as the night time players to attend. It will be a night to remember.

Have a wonderful month. Be healthy and play more bridge here!
