Happy New Year Bridge Lovers!!!

2011 is upon us and our table counts are going up! All of our friends from the North have returned to be with us as they are staying away from the Cold this winter.

This is not a busy time of year just for bridge, there are quite a few classes going on as well. We are finishing up classes this month with bridge greats Martin Hoffman and Michael Wolf. We have an on-going class with Bernice DeYoung on Expert play on Sunday Mornings and Almost-Expert play on Wednesday Mornings. We have intermediate classes with myself on Friday Mornings. We will be starting a 2/1 class with Ernie Moore later this month. And we have a new beginners class on Saturday Mornings starting January 22nd.

So if you are interested in one of these classes, please check out the front of this newsletter or our website for days and times and just show up. There are classes for everyone. If you have any questions, please feel free to contact me.

Check our calendar as well. We will run charity games this month from the 17th through the 23rd. On the 23rd, we will be having a special day for Zeke Jabbour. And on the 28th, we will be celebrating Lola Marshman's birthday with a special trophy game. Please plan to attend.

My friends, don't go out in the cold! Come on in and play bridge with us at the Fort Lauderdale Bridge Club.

Carl's Bridge Tip of the Month
Keep cool at the bridge table, even when it's cold outside!
